COMMITTEES SUPPORTED BY FSI PAC

FSI PAC FOCUSES ON THE FOLLOWING SENATE COMMITTEES:

Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP): This committee has jurisdiction over the Department of Labor and pension/retirement issues.

Senate Committee on Finance: This committee has jurisdiction over taxation and revenue measures.

Senate Committee on Banking: This committee has jurisdiction over banking, insurance, financial markets, and securities issues.

Senate Committee on Commerce, Science and Transportation: This committee has jurisdiction over interstate commerce, economic development and technology.

FSI PAC FOCUSES ON THE FOLLOWING HOUSE COMMITTEES:

House Financial Services Committee: This committee oversees the entire financial services industry including the Federal Reserve, the U.S. Treasury, the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission (SEC), and other financial services regulators such as the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA).

House Ways and Means Committee: This committee is the chief tax writing committee of the House and has jurisdiction over all taxation, tariffs and other revenue-raising measures.

House Education and Workforce Committee: This committee holds jurisdiction over workforce initiatives pertaining to our industry, including retirement security matters.

House Education and Workforce Committee: This committee is responsible for matters including cybersecurity, digital commerce, consumer protection, telecommunications, as well as oversight and investigations.